Windsor, September 6.

THE following Address from the County of Huntingdon, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Cotton, Bart. attended by Thomas Cotton, of Conington, and James Herbert, Esqs; being introduced by the Lord High Treasurer.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of several of the Justices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Huntingdon, on the 11th of August, 1712.

Most Gracious Sovereign!

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects beg leave to offer our most grateful Acknowledgments for Your Majesty's Royal Favour and Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the happy Progress of Your Majesty's vigorous Endeavours, for procuring a General Peace upon Terms so very Honourable to Great Britain, and so Reasonable with respect to all Your Allies, and particularly for obtaining the Possession of that most important Fortrefs of Dunkirk; and likewise for the peculiar Care Your Majesty has taken in securing to us a Protestant Succession. And as we are sufficiently satisfied with the wonderful Proceedings of Your Majesty's present Council, so we are confident that nothing on Your Majesty's part will be wanting for bringing this necessary and important Affair to a speedy Conclusion. And we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that notwithstanding we are part of that County which gave Birth to that Grand Traytor and Usurper Oliwer Cromwell, we are not all abandoned to those Rebellious Principles, or such other as have of late been too Industrious and Impudently advanced. We take this Opportunity to repeat our Assurances to Your Majesty, of that Fidelity and Obedience which all Dutiful and Loyal Subjects owe to so Good and Gracious a Prince; and shall ever pray that Your Majesty may long enjoy the Fruits of these prosperous Labours in this Life, attended with a constant Series of Glory, until that Glory be Consummated in a better.

The following Address from the Town and Port of New Romney, was presented to Her Majesty by Robert Furness, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty of the Town and Port of New Romney.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly presume to approach Your most Sacred Person with our most unfeigned Thanks for Your great Condescension, in communicating to Your Parliament the Terms on which a General Peace may be had; as also to express our Gratitude for Your Majesty's great Care and Concern for the Protestant Succession, as by Law Establish'd, in the most Illustrious House of Hanover.

That Almighty God may bless Your Majesty with Success in this great Work, to the Happiness and Security of Your Kingdoms, and grant You long to Reign over us, to enjoy the Fruits of Peace, are the most fervent Prayers of us Your Majesty's most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

Which Addresses Her Majesty receiv'd very Graciously.

Genoa, August 18. N. S. We have received Advice from Barcelona, that Marshal Staremberg had taken the Field on the 28th of July, and that he had detached a Body of Troops to Cervera, which had made themselves Masters of that Place, the Enemies Garrison retiring upon the approach of the Germans.

Milan, August 23. N. S. Letters from Switzerland confirm the Accounts we had before, that a Treaty of Peace was concluded between the five Roman Catholick Cantons on the one part, and those of Zurich and Bern on the other. The Terms are very Advantageous to these two latter, since the whole Country of Baden, together with the City of Rapperschwyl, on the Lake of Zurich, and several other Places are to be yielded to them in Perpetuity.

Venice, August 26. N. S. The great Council is employ'd in chusing new Magistrates as is usual every Year before the great Vacation. They write from Rome, that upon the Emperor's recommendation, the Pope has disposed of the Archbishoprick of Milan to Monsignor Odescalchi, Nuntio in Poland, and has also granted him a Dispensation, without which he had not been qualify'd for this Preferment, because he is not Forty Years old. There hath been for some time a great Mortality among the Cattle in the Pope's Territory, the Kingdom of Naples, and several parts of Lombardy.

Hamburg, Sept. 9. N. S. On the 6th Instant the Garrison of Staden surrendered at Discretion. Monsieur Stakelberg, the Commandant of the Place, made his escape from thence the Day before, for fear of being delivered up to the Czar, to whom he had paid Homage as a Subject of Liefland. The King of Denmark has appointed Major-General Van Enden, to be Commandant of the Town, General Scholten Governour General, and Monsieur Wafmar, Chancellor of the Dutchy of Bremen. The Emperor has renewed a Commission which was in force two Years ago, for adjusting the Affairs of Mecklenburg, and accommodating some Differences which have arose between the Duke of Swerin and his Nobility. The Commissioners are to be Ministers from the Emperor, Sweden and Wolfenbuttel. The Plague is spread to Weedel, a Village belonging to the King of Denmark, two Miles distant from hence. Upon Notice of this, Baron Grote, the Elector of Hanover's Minister, has declared to the Magistrates of this City, that if they do not immediately shut up the two Gates, which lead to those parts of the Danish Dominions which are Infected, his Electoral Highness will forbid all Communication between his Country and Hambourg. But the Magistrates have not hitherto come to any Resolution upon this Matter.

Utrecht, September 13. N. S. On Friday the 9th an Express from Nimeguen brought an Account here, that a Party of French had made an incursion within a few Leagues of that Place, whereupon the Regiment of Nassau Woudenbourg, which was in Garrison here, march'd the next Morning with all Diligence to prevent any Disorders which might happen on that Occasion. The same Day the Earl of Strafford went to the Hague, from whence he is expected back very soon, together with several other Ministers of the Allies, who are likewise gone there during the present interval of Business.

Whitehall, Sept. 5. Whereas it has been maliciously inserted in the Amsterdam Gazette of the 13th Instant, N. S. in the Article from London, That several Subaltern Officers belonging to Her Majesty's Regiments lately Disbanded, begin to rob upon the Highways; it is thought proper to do Justice to all the Gentlemen who have served in those Corps, by publishing to the World, that upon the strictest Enquiry it does not appear that any of them have given the least Occasion for this great Scandal so injuriously cast upon them.

The Committee for Letting the Cities Lands in the account of the Chamberlain of the City of London give Notice, that they intend to Let by Lease the Wood Wharf and a Wood Yard, with two Tenements, Stables, and Buildings, thereupon erected, situate at or near Broken Wharf, in the Possession of Mr. Robert Reynolds and others. Two Tenements over-against the
